Chiye Timothy Lu d/b/a Monarch, Plaintiff	Jury Trial Demanded
v.	No.

Complaint and Request for Injunctive Relief

I. Jurisdiction and Venue

1. This is an action in law and equity for trademark infringement and false designation of origin under the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1051, et seq., and violations of the Anti-Cybersquatting Consumer Protection Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1115(d).
2. This court has jurisdiction over this civil action pursuant to 15 U.S.C. 1125 section (a) (1) (A) and 15 U.S.C. 1125 section (a)(1) (B).
3. This court also has jurisdiction to grant injunctive relief in this case pursuant to 15 U.S.C. 1116.
4. The events giving rise to the instant claims and causes of action occurred in the Counties of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania making the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania the appropriate venue for this action pursuant to 15 U.S.C. 1121 (a). “

II. The Parties

5. Plaintiff, Chiye Timothy Lu, is an adult individual whose business address is 1031 Germantown Ave, Philadelphia PA 19123.
6. Defendant, Brian C. Nagele, is an adult individual with an address of 211 N 13th Street, Suite 800, Philadelphia, PA 19107.
7. Defendant, Cities2nite, LLC, is a limited liability corporation formed under Pennsylvania law with a registered address of 117 S. 17th Street, Suite 707, Philadelphia, PA 19104.

III. Facts

North Shore Beach Club is sold to Monarch

8. Chiye Timothy Lu is the owner of Monarch, a restaurant and swimming pool located in the Northern Liberties neighborhood of Philadelphia.
9. Lu purchased the swimming pool on or about December 15, 2015, subject to an Agreement of Sale and Management Agreement.
10. A true and correct copy of the Agreement of Sale and Management Agreement is attached as Exhibit A.
11. Prior to the sale, Monarch was owned by North Shore Beach LLC and did business as “North Shore Beach Club” or “North Shore.”
12. Brian Nagele was the sole member of North Shore Beach LLC, and formerly managed the day to day operations of the pool such as social media, interactions with members, and collecting membership fees.
13. North Shore Beach LLC also had two silent owners — Joe Caruso and Tony Palmer.

14. Each former owner of North Shore Beach Club was paid $50,000.00, for a total of $150,000.00, as consideration for the sale.
15. True and correct copies of the checks are attached as Exhibit B.
16. Brian Nagele received his $50,000.00 payment under North Shore Beach LLC.
17. In consideration, Lu acquired a 49% interest in North Shore Beach, LLC under the Agreement of Sale and Membership Agreement.
18. Nagele retained a 51% interest in North Shore Beach, LLC.
19. Under Paragraph 7a of the Management Agreement, Nagele was entitled to 50% of all pool door revenues until August 15, 2016.
20. Pursuant to the Agreement of Sale, Lu acquired “the tradename “North Shore Beach Club”, and all rights thereto, including trademarks, tradenames, goodwill, website, social media, etc. related thereto.” (Exhibit A; Paragraph 8).
21. This intellectual property included, without limitation, the domain name northshorebeachclub.com, the North Shore website, email accounts, pictures, and other intellectual property.
22. At no point did Nagele relinquish the northshorebeachclub.com domain or website, although he was required to under the Agreement of Sale.
23. However, Lu decided to transition the brand from North Shore Beach Club into Monarch, although he now legally owned the rights to North Shore’s intellectual property and trademarks.
24. On October 29, 2016, Lu exercised his option to purchase the remaining 51% of North Shore Beach, LLC. (A true and correct copy of the Settlement and Mutual Release is attached as Exhibit C".)

- 25. Rather than pay Nagele $50,000.00 in cash, Lu assumed a debt owed to CAN Capital of $51,181.44.
- 26. At that point, Nagele's interest in North Shore was entirely terminated.

Sale of Fraudulent Monarch Memberships by Brian Nagele

- 27. Monarch generates part of its revenue by selling memberships to the pool each season.
- 28. These memberships are currently and exclusively sold through Monarch's website, monarchphilly.com.
- 29. Pool members are contacted via an email newsletter or by updates on Facebook, reminding them to purchase memberships before the season starts, and directed to Monarch's website.
- 30. Prior to Lu purchasing the swim club and its intellectual property, memberships were sold through the tradename North Shore Beach Club on the website northshorebeachclub.com.
- 31. After the sale, without authorization, Nagele remained in control of the domain name northshorebeachclub.com, North Shore's email database, email accounts from northshorebeachclub.com, North Shore social media accounts, and essentially all intellectual property that used to be associated with the former business.
- 32. On information and belief, Nagele then transferred ownership of the northshorebeachclub.com domain to Cities2nite, LLC.
- 33. On information and belief, Citizens2nite, LLC is currently the owner of northshorebeachclub.com.

34. Despite several repeated requests, Nagele never turned over North Shore's social media, website, domain names, or other intellectual property.
35. Nagele is now using the North Shore intellectual property purchased by Lu to sell fraudulent Monarch pool memberships and keep the money for himself.
36. Email newsletters, social media, and Facebook posts authored by Nagele redirect people seeking a pool membership to the website northshorebeachclub.com.
37. Nagele is actively soliciting sale of fraudulent Monarch memberships by:
 - 37.1. Fraudulently using the North Shore Beach Club intellectual property and website www.northshorebeachclub.com to divert members from purchasing legitimate memberships from Monarch, and to convince the public that North Shore and Monarch are affiliated
 - 37.2. Posting sponsored Facebook ads directing members and potential members to the North Shore website, and away from Monarch's website
 - 37.3. Manipulating search engines to make it appear that Monarch and North Shore are affiliated, and that memberships can still be purchased through the North Shore website
38. A true and correct copy of certain emails and Facebook posts authored by Nagele is attached as Exhibit D.
39. Nagele has no right to operate Monarch, sell memberships, or use North Shore's intellectual property.

- 40. As such, fraudulent memberships sold by Nagele are not valid at Monarch.
- 41. Nagele's actions are causing significant confusion in the marketplace.
- 42. Members of the general public are unsure whether memberships should be purchased through Monarch or North Shore Beach Club, and they do not know that memberships purchased through the North Shore website are invalid.
- 43. Many customers have purchased memberships through the North Shore website believing they were purchasing memberships to Monarch.
- 44. Nagele's actions are causing irreparable harm to Lu, because members think that they paid him for a membership which he refuses to honor.
- 45. Several individuals have contacted Lu over Facebook, email, in person, and over the telephone accusing him of misconduct, damaging his reputation and business. (Exhibit E).
- 46. Some members of the public are demanding Lu pay refunds for membership fees that were paid directly to Nagele.
- 47. Further, Nagele is selling his fraudulent memberships for less money than Monarch was selling them, causing Monarch to essentially have to compete with itself.
- 48. In information and belief, Nagele has collected over $70,000.00 in membership fees, and he will continue to collect significantly more as the swim season approaches.

IV. Causes of Action

Count I

Trademark Infringement Under the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1051 et seq.

- 49. The Defendant, in connection with his goods and services, used in commerce Plaintiffs' business' words, terms, name, symbol and/or combinations and likenesses thereof.
- 50. The Defendant's actions in this regard were deliberate, willful and wanton, were intended to cause confusion and mistake, and were intended to deceive as to the affiliation, connection and association with plaintiff's business, Monarch.
- 51. These same actions have caused confusion and mistake in the marketplace as to Monarch's affiliation and association with North Shore Beach Club.
- 52. The Defendant's actions in this regard have and are likely to continue to result in profits for which the defendants would not otherwise receive or be entitled to.
- 53. The above described actions constitute trademark infringement under Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1051 et seq.

Count II

Anti-Cybersquatting Consumer Protection Act under Section 43(d) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(d)

- 54. Brian Nagele, through City2night LLC, remains in control of the domain name www.northshorebeachclub.com, which is owned by Plaintiff.
- 55. Defendants are using the website to divert money that should be going to Plaintiff to himself, and to defraud the public.
- 56. Defendant has a bad faith intent to profit from the registration and use of the Internet domain name northshorebeachclub.com by selling false Monarch memberships for his own enrichment
- 57. Defendant's acts are in violation of the Anti-Cybersquatting Consumer Protection Act under Section 43(d) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(d).

V. Relief Requested

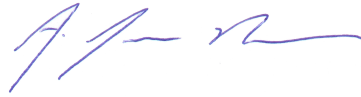

- Nominal, Compensatory and Punitive damages against the defendant in an amount in excess of $150,000.00 under Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1051, et seq.
- A Temporary Restraining Order, Preliminary Injunction and Permanent Injunction preventing the defendants from using the words North Shore Beach Club, the likeness of plaintiffs' North Shore Beach Club, Monarch, logo, or any other similar promotional variations related hereto.
- A Temporary Restraining Order freezing any and all bank accounts owned by Brian Nagele which membership fees have been paid into
- An accounting of all membership fees paid to North Shore through the website www.northshorebeachclub.com
- The destruction of any and all labels, signs, prints, packages, t-shirts, videos digital reproductions, social media, videos, or any other tangible or electronic advertisement or product in the possession of the defendants and their affiliates that bear the words North Shore, the likeness of North Shore, or any other similar variations related thereto.
- Statutory damages for any and all of the profits generated by defendants while infringing upon the mark as provided in 15 U.S.C. 1117 (a).
- Return of the domain name www.northshorebeachclub.com to the Plaintiff

- Any and all attorney fees, filing fees, costs or other expenses related to the filing and litigation of this lawsuit.
- Any other relief plaintiff may be entitled to that is not requested herein.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff demands judgment in his favor and against defendant in an amount exceeding $150,000.00, including attorneys fees, court costs, expenses, punitive damages, and whatever other relief this Court finds just and proper.
